Presented by ADAC (Atlanta Decorative Arts Center), in partnership with American lifestyle magazine VERANDA, the 2024 Southeast Designers and Architect of the Year Awards were announced last night during a gala at the Atlanta History Center. The annual event celebrates firms and individuals from across the Southeast who exemplify the highest caliber and bring forth contemporary ideas innovating the design world. A panel of decorated judges selected winners for the best talent in architecture, contract design and residential design from a group of 26 skilled finalists spanning the Southeast. Prior to the gala, finalists were recognized Wednesday night at Ernest Gaspard during ADAC's annual spring market, DESIGN ADAC.

The 2024 Southeast Designers and Architect of the Year winners are:

- Architect: TS Adams Studio Architects | Atlanta
- Contract Design: Tate Casper & Jordan Winston of Oxford Design | Tampa, Fla.
- Residential Design: David Frazier | West Point, Ga.
